

The Hill

D D5 D2 D G A D

He hung on the hill they stretched out his hands

D D5 D2 D G A D

A hush held the crowd as He called to His Dad.

G A D

Oh the pain in His eyes was for you.

G A D

When He took on the curse of the world.

G A D G

The earth shook in horror the sky closed it's eyes

G A D

To all who were there on the hill.

They buried His body under the hill.

Sealed with a stone and big burly guards

Imagine the shock on each face

When He rose from His tomb of disgrace

For God as a Man kept His God-given plan

To rescue His children from sin!

{Interlude} D A G A D (4x)//

Bm D Bm A

Bm D G A D (2x)

He stood on the hill and raised up His hands.

A hush held the crowd as He floated away

{The same way He left He will come.

The rise and descent of the Son

Will you be ready to witness the thrill

Will you be there on the hill?} Repeat 3x/last line 3x

©2001 Daniel L. York ARR First Cause "Of Seen And Unseen"